

RYAN NORWOOD, CFA
Senior Vice President
rnorwood@morrisonstreetcapital.com
tel: 718.578.4201

Ryan Norwood joined Morrison Street Capital in 2010. Mr. Norwood leads the firm's New York office and is responsible for the sourcing, underwriting and due diligence of new investments for the Morrison Street Funds.

Previously, Mr. Norwood worked as an Analyst for Obsidian Finance Group, LLC. At Obsidian, Mr. Norwood completed extensive diligence on various portfolios of distressed commercial real estate assets, whole loans and RMBS. Additionally, he worked on numerous Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases where Obsidian or its principals were the Liquidating Trustee or Financial Advisor to the Debtor.

Mr. Norwood also served as an officer in United States Army from 2002 to 2006, where he led a Scout Platoon on over 300 combat missions during Operation Iraqi Freedom II. He was honorably discharged as a Ranger qualified Captain.

Mr. Norwood received his bachelor's degree in Finance from the Leavey School of Business at Santa Clara University. He is a CFA Charterholder and a member of the New York Society of Security Analysts, and a member of NAIOP. Mr. Norwood is a previous Vice President of The Oregon Forum, a group of business professionals involved in public affairs and community issues facing Oregon, and served on the Dougy Center Board of Directors from 2012-2014.

