As Director of Originations for Morrison Street Capital, David Tindall's primary role is to source, underwrite and close investments for the Funds, with specific responsibility for establishing transaction pipeline development by maintaining relationship with lenders, mortgage bankers, joint venture partners, and borrowers.

Mr. Tindall was formerly a Vice President with ING Clarion's private equity acquisitions group, responsible for investing client capital in multiple markets in the western United States. While at ING Clarion, he participated in investing more than $1.7 billion of equity in office, industrial, retail and multifamily assets primarily for U.S. pension fund clients. Prior to joining the acquisitions team, he spent several years as an Asset Manager in ING Clarion's asset management group. In this capacity, Mr. Tindall oversaw the management of more than 2.3 million square feet of industrial projects in Southern California as well as office buildings in Portland and Sacramento. His experience also includes work as a project manager overseeing the development, lease-up and sale of a speculative office project in Phoenix.

Mr. Tindall received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Georgetown University. He previously served as co-chair of the Urban Land Institute's (ULI) Young Leader's Group and a member of the executive committee of ULI's Seattle District Council.
